

Thank you for accepting grain donations on behalf of Canadian Foodgrains Bank!

Below are some instructions for filling out the Grain Delivery Ticket. One of these must be filled out with each grain donation. Please attach the yellow copy of the ticket to the cheque made out to Canadian Foodgrains Bank.

When someone comes in to make a donation, please ask them if this is a personal donation or a donation on behalf of a growing project (fundraisers for the Foodgrains Bank).

Please note: Some growing projects prefer the cheque be made out to their growing project — this is acceptable, please follow the instructions and instead of making the cheque payable to Canadian Foodgrains Bank, make it payable to their growing project — they will submit a final report at the end of the year.

If you have any questions, please contact the Foodgrains Bank at 1.800.665.0377 or your Regional Representative for your province (see website for contact information).

For personal donations, print the donor's name in the box labeled "name to appear on receipt."
For growing project donations, leave this box blank.

Some individuals may want to allocate their donation to a growing project—if this is the case, please check off 'yes' and indicate the growing project name. If this is not the case, please check off 'no.'

If it is a growing project donation, check off 'yes' and indicate the growing project name.

Producer receives white copy. Yellow copy is sent with cheque to Canadian Foodgrains Bank.

Fill out all the commodity information that applies.

Attach the yellow copy of this Grain Delivery Ticket with the cheque payable to Canadian Foodgrains Bank (this helps us process the information). The producer receives the white copy.

Print the donor's full mailing address, as they are entitled to a tax-deductible receipt. If it is a growing project donation, please include their mailing address if known.

Check off which member the donor or growing project would like to allocate their donation to. They can choose more than one if they like.
